

Former Rincon High School basketball player Victor Rodriguez has been hired by the Pac-10 as an intern in the conference office at Walnut Creek, Calif. Rodriguez paid his dues by graduating from the UA while simultaneously working as Rich Utter's junior varsity coach at Rincon and also working for UA athletic director Jim Livengood and in Arizona's sports information office.